WAL: how to explain who we love and why

What I love and like!

First of all, I love my family by giving them kisses every time they go to work because it puts a smile on their face which makes me feel really happy.

Secondly, I love my sister by helping her read words from her school reading book, that she's stuck on. So would you help your brother, sister or even both?
When, my parents are busy or look confused I ask if there ok but they say they're fine well I don't think so.

Next, I love my friends, who are honest, or otherwise I can't trust them. When, I play with my friends it makes me feel calm because I know I am with someone I love.

Mental Health Awareness Week

The theme for this year is Nature and as part of this theme Jessica and James (Y5 & Y3) have been litter picking on their walk home from school and in the local park.

What stars!

New homes needed for our Gerbil babies

We have had 2 unexpected litters of gerbils.

The first litter were found on the 6 April and the second litter were born on 11 May, I popped to see the first litter in my lunch break and there they were!

Litter one consists of 4 black and 1 golden and we think were a week old when we found them.

We would like to re-home these babies free of charge so if you would like a pair (minimum) please get in touch. They have yet to be sexed but this will be done by our vets. They can only be homed in pairs or 3's and once they are sexed we can divide them up.

The first litter are ready for their new homes by 25 May and the second litter will be ready to leave mum by 6 July.

Contact me on 07501 097152 to have a chat and maybe come and have a look (restrictions allowing).
