Why we collect and use information:

We use the pupil data:

- To support pupil learning
- To keep informed to keep children safe
- To monitor and report on pupil progress
- To provide appropriate pastoral care
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing

We use the parents' data:

- To assess the quality of our services
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing
- To ensure financial stability

The lawful basis on which we use this information:

The lawful bases for processing personal data are set out in Article 6 of the General Data Protection Regulation. The school processed such data because we have:

(6a) Consent: parents have given clear consent for us to process their (and their child's) personal data for the purposes indicated above.

(6c) A Legal obligation: the processing is necessary for us to comply with the law (e.g. we are required by law to submit certain teacher assessment information and to safeguard pupils' welfare by sharing information with other agencies).

(6d) A duty to safeguard pupils: the processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject (children); (e.g. if we are required to share medical history information with emergency services in the event of an accident or to other agencies when a child may be in danger).

Collecting Pupil Information:

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing pupil data:

We will hold pupil data in line with the Trust Retention Policy after your child leaves our school. All confidential information is kept secure either on encrypted, password protected devices or paper copies kept on the school site. Once the deadline for retaining information has passed, data kept electronically is deleted and paper copies are destroyed.

Who we share pupil information with:

We routinely share aspects of pupil information with:

- Schools that the pupil attends after leaving us
- Our local authority
- Our Multi-Academy Trust (EMET)
- The Department for Education (DfE)
- Children's Social Care (when safeguarding pupils' welfare)
- External professionals who visit school (such as Educational Psychologists)
- Our appointed school photographer
- Suppliers and service providers with whom we have a contract e.g. Scholarpack, Class Dojo, CPOMS
- Voluntary organisations linked to the school e.g. PTFA
- KS2 to KS3 Transition Portal; used to share information to aid smooth transition between CJS and Secondary Schools.

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed upon us by the DfE (for example; via the school 'census') go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the DfE and contains information about pupils in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We share pupils' data with the Local Authority and the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring. We are required to share information about pupils with the DfE under regulation 5 of the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>

The Department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- Conducting research or analysis
- Providing statistics
- Providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and the use of data. Decisions on whether the DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based upon a detailed assessment of:

- Who is requesting the data
- The purpose for which it is required
- The level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- The arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering confidentiality and handling of data, security arrangements and the retention and use of the data.

For more information about the Department's data sharing process, please visit:

<https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

For more information about which organisations to whom the department had provided pupil information (and for which project), please visit the following website:

Requesting access to your personal data – Subject Access Request

Under data protection legislation, parents and pupils have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, or be given access to your child's educational record, contact Mrs Joanne Davis on 01332 701460, at admin@cjs.derby.sch.uk or visit the school office.

You also have the right to:

- Object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- Object to decisions being made by automated means
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection Regulations.

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns>

Contact

If you would like to discuss anything in this Privacy Notice, please contact

- School Administrator: Mrs Joanne Davis (01332 701460 or admin@cjs.derby.sch.uk)

The DPO cannot hold a position that requires them to determine the purpose and means of processing personal data, for example, the Head Teacher, or Head of Information Technology. For this reason, EMET have appointed:

Address: GDPR in Schools Limited, 11 Kingsley Lodge, 13 New Cavendish Street, London W1G 9UG
